Automobile Owners!

It is hereby agreed by the undersigned automobile and accessory dealers of Barre that the elimination of credit is absolutely necessary that our respective businesses may be carried along in their present channels.

It is, therefore, further agreed that commencing April 15 all accessories, parts, gasoline and repair work will be strictly cash on delivery.

This is no reflection on anyone's credit standing, but is an absolutely necessary procedure in order that we may continue to give our customers the service which they expect and deserve. Overhead expenses have increased much greater in proportion than our profits, and the handling of credit sales is one of the largest factors.

For the convenience of handling gasoline to our larger customers who purchase frequently, we will issue prepayment coupon books, which may be used by anyone in charge of the car.

We are sure, under the present war-time conditions, that you will appreciate our object and co-operate with us.

Porsaking its aquatic haunts in Stevens branch, a muskrat courted disaster by emerging from Depot square last evening into the full glare of North Main street. Its appearance in the area of light cast by the glimmer which shines on the Park theatre entrance was the signal for a general assault on the part of small boys. The rodent's troubles had just begun. Sticks, stones and, some say, bottles, were rained on the little adventurer, and finally the muskrat, overwhelmed by superior numbers, succumbed to a well directed blow. Not long ago a muskrat was discerned tripping through City park, and among other wild animals that have been attracted to Barre is a doe, now in captivity at the Cutler livery.

Barre friends of Robert S. Blake, a nephew of George R. Blake of Merchant street, will be interested in the following item from the Aberdeen Weekly Journal of recent date: "A journey of 5,100 miles made by an Aberdeen man, Robert Sharp Blake, with the object of enlisting in the United States navy, is related in the Pittsburgh Dispatch. Blake, the paper says, arrived in Pittsburgh after a journey of more than 5,100 miles from Aberdeen, Scotland, to enlist. He was within the draft age, however, and had not a certificate from his local board that he would not be needed in filling current quotas. He explained that the quota of the territory of Hawaii had more than twice been filled by voluntary enlistment. He secured the required certificate from his local board. Mr. Blake is a native of Aberdeen, a son of Mr. Blake, butcher of Rosemount. He has been in the Hawaiian islands for seven years and recently became a naturalized citizen of the United States. One of his brothers holds a commission in the R. F. A. and has been in France since the commencement of the war; one holds a commission in the R. F. C., while the other is undergoing training in the Argyle and Highland Highlanders."

C., while the other is undergoing training in the Argyle and Highland Highlanders."

Barre friends of Robert S. Blake, a nephew of George R. Blake of Merchant street, will be interested in the following item from the Aberdeen Weekly Journal of recent date: "A journey of 5,100 miles made by an Aberdeen man, Robert Sharp Blake, with the object of enlisting in the United States navy, is related in the Pittsburgh Dispatch. Blake, the paper says, arrived in Pittsburgh after a journey of more than 5,100 miles from Aberdeen, Scotland, to enlist. He was within the draft age, however, and had not a certificate from his local board that he would not be needed in filling current quotas. He explained that the quota of the territory of Hawaii had more than twice been filled by voluntary enlistment. He secured the required certificate from his local board. Mr. Blake is a native of Aberdeen, a son of Mr. Blake, butcher of Rosemount. He has been in the Hawaiian islands for seven years and recently became a naturalized citizen of the United States. One of his brothers holds a commission in the R. F. A. and has been in France since the commencement of the war; one holds a commission in the R. F. C., while the other is undergoing training in the Argyle and Highland Highlanders."
